Life-Changing Work Supporting Service and working dogs.

Investment will extend efforts to help dogs and disabled veterans in the United States live their best lives!

Lawrenceburg, August 26th, 2024 – Working Dogs For Vets of Lawrenceburg, TN, today announced it has been awarded an investment from Edward Jones Mark Perry to sponsor a veteran service dog team.

Working Dogs For Vets is a nonprofit organization. Working Dogs For Vet's Mission is to provide service dogs and training to veterans in need, empowering them as they return to civilian life with newfound independence, reducing veteran suicide and overcrowding in animal shelters. Serving communities across the U.S.A. Since 2012, Working Dogs For Vets has helped many veterans with service dogs and service dog training. To date, Working Dogs For Vets has helped 3,324 service dog veteran teams. That is more than 6,600 lives saved! Support saves lives at both ends of hte leash!

This support was made possible through Mark Perry's office of Edward Jones Sponsorship of a Service dog to help disabled veterans. Each month during the mail out campaign, Working Dogs For Vets is reaching out across the country, if you are interested in supporting the life-changing work of service, therapy, and working animals please contact support@workingdogsforvets.org.

The Mark Perry's office of Edward Jones investment will help to continue our mission of saving lives on both ends of each leash and will benefit the communities served by the organization by providing veterans with adopted dogs, service dog training equipment, volunteer support, and training information. This investment will be program direct.

“It is a pleasure to receive this award and be recognized for our work,” said Knabenshue. The sponsorships are important to the veterans who can get the support they need during training, and the Edward Jones support means another service dog will find forever Home as veterans will have high-quality service animals at their side,” said Kenneth Knabenshue, Founder/President
